

Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) Archdiocese of Baltimore

2009 CCHD National and Local Grants

National Grants - $250,000

$50,000 - United Workers Assn. (UWA) - Baltimore

A 5th year community organizing grant to strengthen continuing efforts to build self-respect and dignity for day laborers in the Baltimore area. Their efforts in securing a living wage for hourly maintenance employees, hiring hall space and the respect of civic and business leaders continue as the goals and achievements of the UWA members.

$45,000 - United Workers Assn. (UWA) - Baltimore

A second year Economic Development grant will support funding for a worker owned business enterprise. In two groups, the business offers Dignity Services for workers with disabilities and First-Time Services for entry level workers. To date, a variety of institutions and churches has enjoyed good experiences in the UWA services provided.

$45,000 - Save Middle East Action Committee (SMEAC)

This 5th year community organizing grant continues to give voice to displaced home owners and renters, seeking new and alternative housing in the technological park/redevelopment areas, adjacent to Johns Hopkins Hospital facilities in east Baltimore.

$40,000 - P.A.T.H. (People Acting Together in Howard)

A third year community organizing grant to continue member churches and associations in their efforts to provide affordable housing for needy families in Howard County. Efforts have been fruitful in gaining support of civic and elected officials.

$40,000 - Youth as Resources - Baltimore

This second year national CCHD grant recognizes the achievement of a unique group of students and young adults trained in the social justice principles. In turn, with their skills, they provide grants and guidance to other youth operated projects in the city.

$30,000 - Out for Justice / Alternative Directions - Baltimore

A second year CCHD organizing grant will enable this project to continue to address and empower largely unrepresented persons inside and outside the prison system, with special attention on reentry into society.

Local Grants - $55,000

$12,500 - Maryland Disabilities Law Center (MDLC) - Baltimore

Working with parents and Baltimore City Public Schools officials, MDLC promotes and insures education opportunities for children with special needs.

$12,500 - Neighborhood Housing Service (NHS) Baltimore

This local grant will aid NHS in its efforts to develop, a micro lending fund to combat "pay day lenders". The Alliance for Economic Inclusion is especially needed in southwest Baltimore where there are no major banking institutions.

$10,000 - Students Sharing Coalition - Baltimore

Supported by the Local CCHD for many years, Students Sharing Coalition attracts, educates and trains students, middle school through college years, With clear understanding of the social justice principles, the students organize school groups and lobby for the rights of the poor and homeless.

$10,000 - Proyecto Esperanza - Baltimore

A 5th year community organizing grant to continue advocacy and educational opportunities for persons in the Latino community. Resources provided by lawyers and para-legals effect stability in persons' immigration status.

$10,000 - Arundel House of Hope - Glen Burnie

Founded in 1992, AHOH has worked to provide housing, rehab opportunities for homeless men and women of Anne Arundel County. A community movement, supported by local churches, AHOH will develop job training and business opportunities enabling folks to be self-employed. This CCHD economic development grant offers assistance in making this a reality.

CCHD Collection, Archdiocese of Baltimore. Nov. 2008 - $

National CCHD Grants 2009 Total ----- $250,000

Local CCHD Grants 2009 Total -----$ 55,000

Total CCHD National & Local Grants -- $305,000